McLEAN-CROW.

Popular Hilo Couple United in Marriage Tuesday.

Walter S. McLean and Anna Crow were married Tuesday evening at 8:30 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Breyman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Curtis E. Shields of the First Foreign Church and was witnessed only by close relatives and a few intimate friends. At the appointed hour the minister led the way into the parlor followed by the groom and Mr. McLean, immediately after whom came the bride with Mrs. Breyman as matron of honor. The bride wore a beautiful gown of crepe du chine over taffeta. Orange blossoms in the bride's hair and a large bouquet of the same carried in her hand, harmonized with her gown and enhanced her natural striking beauty.

It was a ring wedding, and the solemnities were pronounced in the front parlor beneath an arch of bamboo ornate with fresh roses. Rose wreaths also decorated the room. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Breyman, Master Eugene Breyman, Mr. Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Moragne, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Shields, Mr. Easton, and Mr. Nichols.

After the ceremony the company retired to the dining room for refreshments. The dining room had been prettily decorated with pink begonias and maiden hair fern. During the evening the Hawaiian orchestra rendered sweet music. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents.

After a visit of several days at the Volcano Mr. and Mrs. McLean will return to their residence in Puna where they will be at home to their friends.

AN OLAA DANCE.

Cotillion Club Members Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. McStocker.

One of the most pleasant evenings for members of the Cotillion Club was Monday evening last, when in response to an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McStocker nearly all the membership were their guests at a dance at the Olaa Club-rooms. A special train was chartered, which left Hilo with a jolly company aboard. They soon arrived at Kaeau and were received at the dance hall by Mr. and Mrs. McStocker, assisted by Mrs. Thurston and Miss Potter.

The hall had been beautifully decorated for the dancers and members of the Cotillion Club had never danced to better music than was provided for the evening. The company was served with a delightful lunch at 11 o'clock and at 1 in the morning they started for home on the special. The Olaa musicians played a serenade at the station.

Andrews to be Removed.

Honolulu, Feb. 22.—Governor Carter is looking about for a successor to Sheriff Lorrin A. Andrews of the island of Hawaii. As a result of the complaints made to him while on Hawaii, the Governor has concluded, in the interests of harmony, that the government service would be improved without Andrews as a disturbing factor. One of the reasons for the removal is the complaint that Andrews used prisoners and police for private purposes, namely the garbage service which he conducted in Hilo.

Andrews, on the other hand, claims that he never made any money on the contract and was simply carrying it on for the sanitary improvement of Hilo, and with the sanction of the High Sheriff.

Junior Social.

The Junior Endeavor valentine social at the First Foreign church last Friday evening was one of the prettiest valentine affairs of the season. An interesting program of music and recitations was given by the young folks after which a pleasant hour was spent with games and the distribution of valentines from the post-office in the Sunday School parlor. The company was also served with refreshments. The arrangements for the social were under the direction of Katherine Howard.
